1. Joney used to take care of his grandmother and stayed with her in her house.

2. Joney's grandmother told him to cut wood before he goes up camping at the lakes.

3. Joney always chopped lots of wood; his grandmother was proud of Joney because he chopped wood.

4. Joney rowed his way up the lakes unhurriedly.

5. He went up to the little lake by walking overland.

6. When he got to a land that had a river, he liked it and set up a tent.

7. First he set a tent and built a fire, and then made tea and barbecued fish.

8. Then Joney fished in the little lake.

9. While Joney was fishing, a bear was watching him. He had an eye on his fish.

10. Joney made dry fish out of all the fish he caught.

11. He hung up all his dry fish on a drying stick.

12. When Joney was done, the bear ate his dry fish; the bear liked the dry fish.

13. Then Joney got angry at the bear because the bear had eaten his dry fish.

14. Joney got his gun, and before he left, he drank some tea.

15. He looked around the country for the bear. Joney couldn't find him; he couldn't find him anywhere.

16. The bear was hiding from him. He stayed in his den until Joney went back.

17. Joney went ahead and left without finding the bear; he gave up on the bear.

18. Then Joney left his tent and went down to tell his grandmother.

19. The bear was interested in his tent and checked to see what he had.

20. Then the bear saw the bed and wanted to lie down, so he went to bed and slept.

21. When the bear got up he was hungry and drank some tea and had some dry fish.

22. When the bear was done, he left before Joney came back. He went to eat some berries too.
